

National Guard Militia Museum of New Jersey

Sea Girt Museum - Lawrenceville Artillery Annex - Trenton War Memorial Annex

Museum Membership Application

The National Guard Militia Museum of New Jersey has the mission of preserving and explaining New Jersey military history and enhancing public understanding of how armed conflicts and military institutions have shaped our state and national experience.

The National Guard Militia Museum of New Jersey Inc. is a support organization dedicated to assist in the collection, preservation and display of artifacts and related memorabilia with specific historical significance to the militia and National Guard of the State of New Jersey. Especially important are those artifacts that portray the contributions of the citizen-soldier to both the state and nation. The primary Museum is located on the historic campus of the National Guard Training Center in Sea Girt, New Jersey. The Museum also has an Annex at the War Memorial in Trenton, NJ, and an Artillery Annex at the National Guard Armory in Lawrenceville, NJ.

In addition to its mission to collect, store, preserve and display artifacts and memorabilia related to the militia and National Guard, the Museum is also dedicated to educating the public about the vitally important role the National Guard and the military services play in the defense of our nation. The Museum is open on holidays and weekends from early Spring through Fall and by appointment; providing access to all visitors, schools and any interested organizations to experience and enjoy the exhibits at our various locations.

Membership is open to any interested party in the following categories:

Individual Membership $10.00

Life Membership $250.00
